

JEFF LANG

BIP Energy

Jeff Lang brings more than thirty years of industry experience to the table, having worked in both onshore and offshore roles, domestically and internationally. Currently, Mr. Lang is the Executive Vice President, Operations, for BIP Energy. Previously, he was the Chief Operating Officer for Alcova Resources, a Wyoming-focused upstream E&P company he co-founded in early 2015. Prior to starting Alcova, Mr. Lang was the Vice President of Operations for Samuel Gary Jr. & Associates, Inc. (2008-2015). Before joining Samuel Gary, Jr., he was Vice President of Operations for Miller, Dyer & Co., LLC (2005-2008). From 1999 to 2005, Mr. Lang worked for Preston Reynolds and Co., Inc., which was subsequently acquired by Fidelity Exploration and Production Company. During his time with Fidelity, he held positions of increasing responsibility ranging from Operations Engineer to Director. Mr. Lang spent the first 15 years of his career with Amoco Production Company in a variety of engineering and management roles.

Mr. Lang earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Petroleum Engineering from the University of Wyoming in 1983, and is a Registered Professional Petroleum Engineer in the State of Colorado. In addition to the DPC, he serves on the Board of Directors for the Western Energy Alliance, the Board of Advisors for ACE Scholarships and is a member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers.
